Matthew 9:9-13

<sup>9</sup>As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him. <sup>10</sup>And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. <sup>11</sup>When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" <sup>12</sup>But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. <sup>13</sup>Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners."

Matthew 12:1-8

<sup>1</sup> At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath; his disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. <sup>2</sup>When the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, "Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the sabbath." <sup>3</sup>He said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup>He entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him or his companions to eat, but only for the priests. <sup>5</sup>Or have you not read in the law that on the sabbath the priests in the temple break the sabbath and yet are guiltless? <sup>6</sup>I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. <sup>7</sup>But if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless. <sup>8</sup>For the Son of Man is lord of the sabbath."
