MCC Connects: MCC is deeply saddened by ongoing occurrences of racially based violence, both in Canada and the U.S. As a Christian organization, it is our mandate to share Christ's love and through our various programs we strive to advocate with those experiencing oppressing, educate our constituents about racial injustice and build relationships across diversity. We also recognise that we have not always done this as effectively as we should. To see MCC's full response to racial injustice, visit <https://mcccanada.ca/stories/mcc-canada-response-racial-injustice> and to access resources for anti-racism education, visit <https://mcccanada.ca/stories/resources-anti-racism-education>.
