The Mennonite Church Canada Palestine-Israel Network (PIN) was established as a response to the resolution passed at the 2016 MC Canada gathering to raise awareness of and work for a just peace in the Holy Land. They are currently without a Mennonite Church Saskatchewan representative. The role involves virtual meetings four times a year with the MC Canada group, with the added possibility of starting a local, Saskatchewan PIN working group. If you are interested in peace and justice work and are familiar with the context of Palestine and Israel, please contact the MC Canada PIN chair, Byron Rempel-Burkholder at brempeburkholder@gmail.com.
