Spotlight on Bike to Work Day

August 17 is bike to work day for Saskatoon. Why bike to work? Cycling is a healthy, convenient, and low-cost form of everyday transportation that improves our community by decreasing traffic congestion and reducing air pollution. The hope of this event is to inspire more people to think of cycling as a regular means of transportation. Check on-line for information at www.biketoworksaskatoon.com

MCC Connects: MCCS needs home-stay placements for participants in the International Volunteer Exchange Program (IVEP). On September 7th MCC selected International Young Adults will arrive in province to serve and learn for 10 months. By opening your home you empower young international leaders and participate in one of MCC's largest international peacebuilding programs. We need home-stays for 5 or 10 months in Osler, Regina and Saskatoon. Please contact IVEP Provincial Coordinator Kaytee Edwards Buhler at 306-665-2555 ext. 237 or KayteeEdwards@mccsk.ca.

Portable CMU: Canadian Mennonite University offers a wide variety of short courses and workshops on a range of topics to resource congregations in their local communities. Note that the subsidy CMU provides has been significantly increased and new topics are offered. Topics include Being the Church Even When We Disagree with Wendy Kroeker, Instructor of Peace & Conflict Transformation Studies and Co-Director of Canadian School of Peacebuilding. For more information see cmu.ca/portables or call 204-487-3300.
