2 Advent Litany

Leader: A voice cried out to the exiles in Babylon: in the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. We are exiled through busyness, through debilitating health, through lost relationships, through a Christmas defined by consumerism rather than Christ. We long to find our spiritual center.

All: In the wilderness, prepare the way of the Lord.

Leader: A voice cried out to the occupied of the first century: in the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord; make his paths straight. There is much that is crooked. Sins committed against us cloud our minds. Our own transgressions weigh on our hearts. We await liberation.

All: In the wilderness, prepare the way of the Lord.

We light two advent candles this day as a prayer that the God who promised straight paths to the exiled and occupied will once again act.

All: In the wilderness, prepare the way of the Lord. Amen.

Isaiah 40:1-8

1 Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. ² Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins. ³ A voice cries out: 'In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. ⁴ Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. ⁵ Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.' ⁶ A voice says, 'Cry out!' And I said, 'What shall I cry?' All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field. ⁷ The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass. ⁸ The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand for ever.

Mark 1:1-4

1 The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. ² As it is written in the prophet Isaiah, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way; ³ the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight" ', ⁴ John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mennonites Learning Indigenous Theology

NAIITS is an Indigenous Learning Community that hosts annual theological gatherings intended for young and older pastors and activists. Mennonite Church Canada's Indigenous-Settler Relations would like to help sponsor a group of women and men from across our nationwide church to attend this year's symposium on "White Supremacy and Indigeneity," June 7-9, 2018 @ Acadia Divinity College (Nova Scotia). If you are interested, please email Steve Heinrichs for details (sheinrichs@mennonitechurch.ca).

Bill C-262 will be debated in Parliament following its second reading. Bill C-262 is a private member's bill that seeks to harmonize Canadian law with the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. As a result of grassroots advocacy, the Government of Canada has just announced that they will be supporting Bill C-262. This is incredibly encouraging! But we need to keep applying the pressure. Active ways to be involved: pray, email a word of thanks to local Liberal MP's, and keep sending the free Walk the Talk postcards to all MP's (www.commonword.ca/go/1283).
