Spotlight on Mennonite Church Saskatchewan

We celebrate the diversity of churches that make up our Mennonite Church Saskatchewan family, and remember the gifts of each that contribute to the church as the Body of Christ. This year, we are being invited to pray for each of the congregations that are part of MC Saskatchewan. This week, we pray for Aberdeen Mennonite Church. They are building relationships in their community through their monthly fundraising supper, with proceeds going to the Canadian Foodgrains Bank. Let's join together in prayer for them as they are going through the process of finding new pastoral leadership.

Sanctum 1.5 is one of NPMC's service projects; this organization cares for HIV positive prenatal mothers and their babies. The mothers appreciate the "care package layette"; which costs approximately $130.00. If you would like to help with this project, contact Annette Epp at annetteepp@sasktel.net. See the Missions bulletin board.

MCC Connects: What does Reconciliation mean to you? A new MCCS project has been asking people this question for our podcast called Reconcile: Everyday Conversations. The podcast is invitational and personal with a wide variety of perspectives. Have a listen today at mccsk.ca/reconcile-podcast.

John 2:1-12

1 On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. 2 Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. 3 When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." 4 And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." 5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." 6 Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. 7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. 8 He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. 9 When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom 10 and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." 11 Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him. 12 After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they remained there a few days.

1 Corinthians 12:1-12

1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. 2 You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. 3 Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. 4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; 5 and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; 6 and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. 7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. 8 To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, 10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. 11 All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. 12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.
