Learning from Creation

Spotlight on Reserve 107: Reconciliation on the Prairies

Relationships and reconciliation between Indigenous and settler peoples is integrally connected to our care for God's creation here in Canada. The award-winning documentary "Reserve 107: Reconciliation on the Prairies" tells a local story of settlers and Indigenous people in Laird, Saskatchewan. "When a group of Mennonites and Lutherans in the town of Laird discover that the land they live on is in fact the former reserve of the Young Chippewyan First Nation, they are forced to acknowledge their history. Myths, assumptions and fears are shattered as this old injustice is about to provide an opportunity for friendship and renew a fierce determination to repair the wrongs of the past." To borrow or watch the film online, see: <http://www.commonword.ca/ResourceView/50/18774> or <https://www.reserve107thefilm.com/>. Study guides available on both websites.

Job 12:7-10

⁷ 'But ask the animals, and they will teach you; the birds of the air, and they will tell you;
⁸ ask the plants of the earth, and they will teach you; and the fish of the sea will declare to you.

⁹ Who among all these does not know that the hand of the Lord has done this?
¹⁰ In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of every human being.

Luke 12:22-32

22 He said to his disciples, 'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. ²³For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. ²⁴Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! ²⁵And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? ²⁶If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest? ²⁷Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. ²⁸But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith! ²⁹And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. ³⁰For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them. ³¹Instead, strive for his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well. ³²'Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Tree Song

Blessed are God's children who will trust in God each day,
No matter where or why or how or what they're doing.
They are like the big trees growing
Right beside the river flowing,
Tall and green and full of fruit,
And rooted deep and strong.

We bear much fruit "chomp"
We fear no drought "ach"
Our leaves are green "wee"
We take the heat "ahh"

repeat - faster
